

Mahita Ramgolam

I'm self-motivated and eager for new challenges. I've just completed my University studies and is currently seeking a position to contribute my skills and gain experience in the IT industry. I am extremely passionate about Front-end Development. I gained interest in learning coding during lock down period. I have learned and build personal projects to improve my basics on HTML/ CSS. I am currently learning JavaScript and want continue to learning coding in a tech company.
